Cookie Policy

Last updated: September 10, 2024

Our website, [www.northware.com] (“Website”), uses cookies to distinguish you from other users and enhance your experience when browsing. A cookie is a small text file placed on your computer or device that helps improve our services by storing certain preferences or tracking usage.

Your browser may be set to accept cookies by default, but you have the option to configure it to refuse cookies or notify you when a cookie is being set. Please note that disabling cookies may affect the functionality of some parts of our Website.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small files placed on your computer or mobile device when you access our Website. They store information about your browsing activity and preferences to make your experience on our site more efficient. Cookies may be classified as either session cookies (which expire when you close your browser) or persistent cookies (which remain on your device until deleted or expire after a certain period).

2. Types of Cookies We Use

We use the following types of cookies:

Essential Cookies:

These cookies are necessary for the operation of our Website. They enable basic functions such as page navigation and access to secure areas. Without these cookies, the Website may not function properly.

Analytical Cookies:

These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our Website by collecting and reporting information anonymously. This helps us improve the Website's performance and your overall experience.

Functional Cookies:

These cookies allow our Website to remember the choices you make (such as your language preferences) and provide enhanced, more personalized features.

3. Managing Cookies

You can choose to accept or refuse cookies by adjusting your browser settings. If you prefer not to accept cookies, most web browsers allow you to control cookie settings. However, please be aware that some parts of our Website may not function properly without cookies.

For more information on how to manage cookies, including how to disable them, visit www.aboutcookies.org.

4. Third-Party Cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may also use third-party cookies, such as those provided by analytics services like Google Analytics. These cookies track usage patterns on our Website and help us optimize our content based on user behavior.

We recommend reviewing the privacy policies of these third-party services to understand how they collect and use data.

5. Changes to This Cookie Policy

Northware reserves the right to update this Cookie Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page, and we may notify you via email or through a notice on our Website. Please check this page periodically for any updates.
